

The Solitude of Silence

*It's in the solitude of silence
That His voice can be heard
It's in the solitude of silence
That His whispers never fade
It's in the solitude of silence
That His heart speaks to mine
It's in the solitude of silence
That I find I have been forgiven
It's in the solitude of silence
That all my fears have flown away
It's in the solitude of silence
That all frustration melts to nothing
It's in the solitude of silence
That my burdens are lifted
It's in the solitude of silence
That I lay all down for Him
It's in the solitude of silence
That strength and grace are given
It's in the solitude of silence
There is a path for each tomorrow
It's in the solitude of silence
That I learn to love Him more
It's in the solitude of silence
That my heart sings once again*

*It's here He lives to me
Here He speaks to me
Here I know His love
It's here – in silence.*
